Domaine Drouhin Purchases Roserock Vineyard in Oregon

Domaine Drouhin recently announced the acquisition of the Roserock Vineyard in Oregon's Eola-Amity Hills AVA. Planted to 111 acres of Pinot Noir and 11 acres of Chardonnay, the 279-acre property has historically provided grapes to some of Oregon's finest Pinot Noir producers. Zepponi & Company served as the exclusive financial advisor to the seller's management firm, GI Partners, and negotiated the sale. Financial terms were not disclosed.

Zepponi & Company is the largest mergers and acquisitions advisory firm dedicated exclusively to the global wine industry. Headquartered in Santa Rosa, California, the firm's three principals, Mario Zepponi, Matt Franklin and Joe Ciatti, are established wine industry veterans, with expertise in strategic transaction analysis, valuations and creativity in structuring complex transactions.
